

REVOLUTION

E X H I B I T I O N

'That was a wonderful time with those five and-a-half foot mind machines with big fins, and Terry Fitz redefining all the lines, Nat and Wayne and company pulling away from the contest scene toward country living and "transitional feel" of those days when the future was being shaped in ways that no one (naturally) understood.' - Drew Kampion, Surfer Magazine

REVOLUTION was officially launched by surfing journalist and photographer John Witzig and USA Surfing Champion Rusty Miller in September 2010. The exhibition features spectacular images, vintage surfboards, rare and previously unseen film footage of the world's greatest surfers in action at Bells Beach and Johanna Beach.

The Revolution Exhibition is now on show daily, 9am – 5pm until March 2011 at the Surf World Museum, Beach Road, Torquay, Victoria.
